Danny McBride and Walton Goggins star. (AC,AL) TVMA-32

HBO® MON-FRI AT 7:30PM

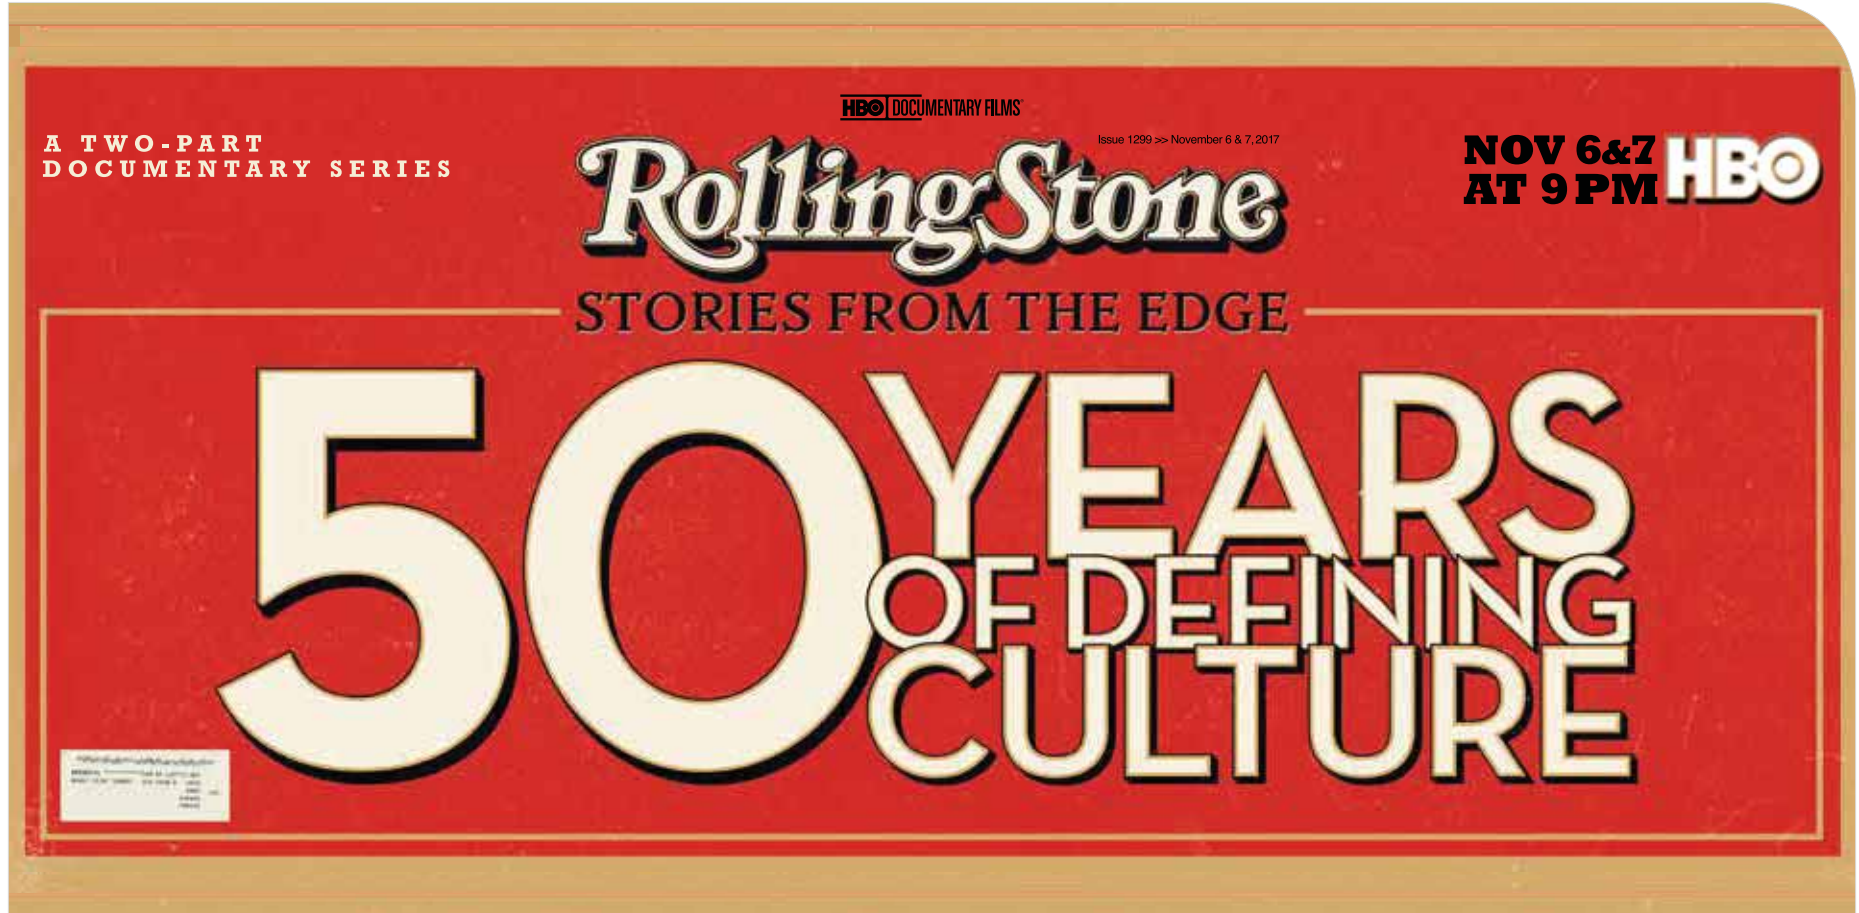

The first news program of its kind to air on HBO, VICE News Tonight provides an indispensable source of up-to-date news to viewers who have grown increasingly skeptical of the daily broadcast news format. Distinguishing itself from traditional daily TV newscasts, the show has no anchor, and instead utilizes correspondent-reported field pieces, newsmaker interviews and profiles, animation and graphics, and “from-the-desk” reports. TV14-:20

One of the funniest, most refreshing personalities to hit the TV scene, John Oliver returns with more new installments of this series that takes a topical look at the week in news, politics and current events. Each show is shot in New York within hours of airing and offers Oliver a unique platform to offer his distinct perspective on issues facing the world today while also featuring a variety of special guests and segments. (AC,AL) TVMA/L-:40

Outspoken, controversial and always entertaining, Bill Maher returns with all-new editions of his award-winning comedy/talk series. Each new show features Maher's opening monologue, a top-of-show interview, a panel discussion, mid-show guest, special taped segments and Maher's "New Rules" finale exposing society's most absurd habits or institutions. Directed by award-winners Alex Gibney and Blair Foster, this two-part, four-hour documentary event chronicles the last 50 years of American music, politics and popular culture through the story of Rolling Stone, the magazine co-founded in 1967 by Jann Wenner and Ralph J. Gleason. Drawing on previously unheard recordings provided by some of Rolling Stone's greatest writers, as well as recent interviews, rare photos and footage, the special takes an inside look at how the magazine helped define the zeitgeist and has endured for a half-century. The film includes recent candid footage with the magazine's co-founder and publisher, Jann Wenner; interviews with top writers and photographers, including Cameron Crowe and Annie Leibovitz; and recent and archival insights by many of the musicians and newsmakers who were profiled. A who's who of celebrity talent comes together to benefit a variety of autism schools, programs and services across the country. Broadcast from The Theater at Madison Square Garden in New York, this special features many memorable celebrity moments, along with hilarious performances and inspiring vignettes that share the stories of adults and children living with autism and the challenges they face. (AL) TV14/L-1:30

In Arkansas, 90% of methamphetamines are smuggled in from Mexico as a stronger and cheaper crystal meth called ICE. With unparalleled access on both sides of the issue, this film tells the story of users and dealers whose addiction to ICE and lack of job opportunities have led to an endless cycle of poverty and incarceration—and of the police and DEA agents struggling to stop the flow of this super-potent form of meth. (AC,AL,V) TVMA/V,L:1:36

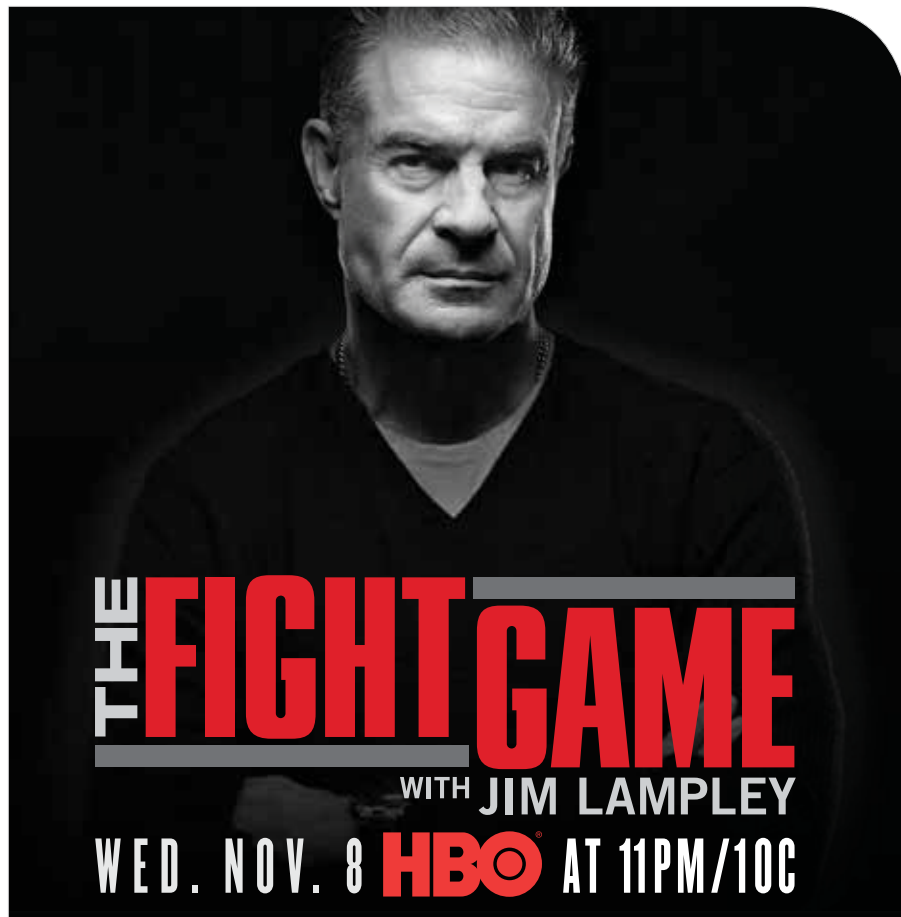

From executive producer Channing Tatum and director Deborah Scranton comes a deeply personal film that highlights the intimate relationship between veterans and their K9 companions, both during combat and as they readjust to civilian life. Focusing on three courageous dogs (Layka, Mika and Pepper) and the soldiers who served by their side, the film looks at the incredibly important role that these canine soldiers play. (AC,AL,MV) TV14/V,L,D-1:09

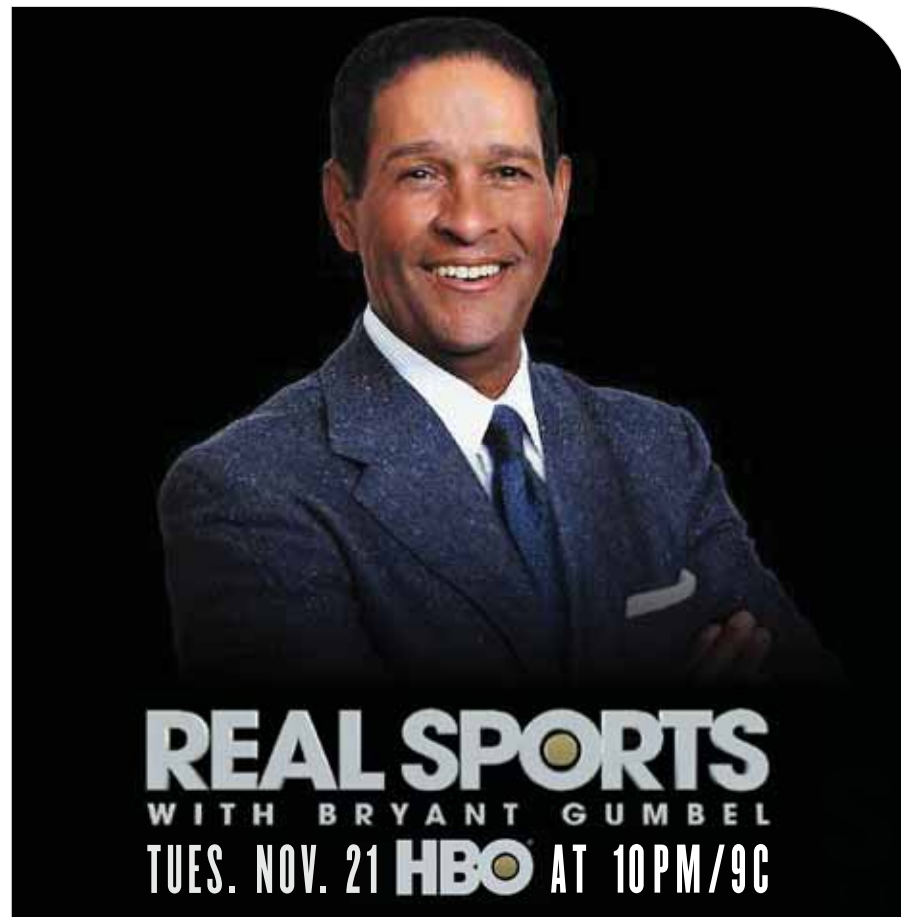

Dmitry Bivol (11-0, 9 KOs) makes his first 175-pound title defense when he takes on Trent Broadhurst (20-1, 12 KOs) in a 12-round title bout. The dangerous Bivol, 26, is on a quest for worldwide recognition and looks to fast-track his way in the talent-rich light heavyweight division. Broadhurst, 29, has compiled a 13-fight winning streak since absorbing his first loss in 2011 and hopes to spring a major upset. (AL) TVPG/L-1:12

HBO Sports presents this explosive boxing tripleheader. In a middleweight showdown, Daniel Jacobs (32-2, 29 KOs) returns to the ring to take on Luis Arias (18-0, 9 KOs). The co-feature is a heavyweight tilt between Jarrell "Big Baby" Miller (19-0, 17 KOs) and Mariusz Wach (33-2, 17 KOs). The opening bout features Cletus Seldin (20-0, 16 KOs) vs. Roberto Ortiz (35-1-2, 26 KOs) in a ten-round super lightweight contest. (AL) TVPG/L-2:42

In the center, a yellow chicken-like Muppet (Big Bird) stands next to a blue Muppet (Grover). To their right is a green pagoda and a trash can with a green Muppet (Oscar the Grouch) peeking out. In the background, there are various city landmarks including the Eiffel Tower, a hot air balloon, and a blimp. On the right side, a red Muppet (Elmo) is running towards the viewer, and a pink Muppet (Muppeteer) is flying in the air. A brown van with a blue Muppet (Cookie Monster) inside is also visible. Voted "least likely to succeed" in acting school, Gene Hackman went on to become one of the greatest actors of his generation, winning two Oscars® and earning three more nominations. Although he retired too soon, he left behind scores of superb performances, three of which are on Cinemax this month. First up is Hackman's breakthrough role in 1971's The French Connection (Nov. 26). William Friedkin's gritty, fact-based crime classic about a maverick cop's efforts to intercept a heroin shipment in New York won five Oscars, including Best Picture, Best Director and Best Actor (Hackman), and features one of the all-time great car chases. Hackman won his second Oscar as a brutal lawman in Clint Eastwood's critically acclaimed 1992 western Unforgiven (Nov. 3, 11, 15, 20, 26), while he plays an activist attorney battling his corporate lawyer daughter in the gripping 1991 courtroom drama Class Action (Nov. 4, 14).
